Chicago Invites Many Prominent Men to Several Americans Reported Killed in Controversy Between Contractors and Super-Fall Festival.

President McKinley, Admirals Dewey, Desperate Fight Between the Indians Schley and Samuson and Cervera Are Expected.

CHICAGO, August 1.-The members of he fall festival committee are confident that Admiral Dewey will accept their invitation to be present at the laying of the cornerstone of the new federal building. Postmaster Gordon, chairman of the federal committee, is in possession of an informal notice to the effect that the admiral will accept.

It is expected that Admiral Dewey will arrive in New York on September 27, and will spend three or four days in that city. From there he will go to Washington, where a sword will be presented to him by the people of that city. October 4 has been selected as the date of the admiral's departure for Chicago. On the same day that Admiral Dewey leaves Washington two other special trains prepared for the occasion will leave that city, one bearing the President and the members of his cabinet and the other the judges of the Supreme Court and other prominent invited guests. The three trains will travel over different reads.

A meeting of the federal committee will be held this week and an invitation will be sent to Admiral Cervera through Minister Storer, who will be asked to use all his influence to have the admiral accept the invi-tation. Admirals Sampson and Schley already have been invited, and the committee hopes that the four admirals will meet in the city. An invitation will be sent also to ex-President Sanford B. Doie of Hawaii through San Francisco.

The committee which conveys the invitation of the federal committee to President Diaz of Mexico will be selected during the week. Preparations for its departure already have been made and transportation for its resulting source. facilities secured. The committee will leave the city on Friday, August 11, for the City

FLAPS ON SCREEN DOORS.

The Inquisitive Citizen Succeeds in Solving a Deep Mystery.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean, If you want to know in what part of Chicago you are, look at the screen door of the nearest grocery or drug store or notion shop. If there is a fantastic adornment of paper on the door you are, in all probability, on the south side, and south of 39th street. For the south siders are indulging in a luxury that does not seem to be known to any great extent on the north and west sides.

This ornament on the screen doors is made of all sorts of paper, but it is generally light in color and of the same general shape. It looks as if the storekeeper had taken a sheet of wrapping paper, folded it in the middle, and cut into it at intervals of an inch or so nearly to the fold. And that is exactly what he has done. Then he runs a string through the paper just below the fold and fastens it across the door so that the flaps hang down straight. If he is frugal one row of flaps satisfies him. If he isn't, he has two and may have three.

If there is a draught through the store the paper wiggles and flaps all der least the paper wiggles and flaps all day long. When any one opens the door the flaps fly out straight, to fall back again when the door is closed. The first one made its ap-pearance at 47th street and Indiana avenue early last week. Now they are as common as screen doors.

An inquisitive citizen who could not figure out what on earth this fantastic decoration was for nearly went crazy as they increased in number. He was curious over the first one he saw. Presently he noticed another. Then he began watching for them and counting. Soon he began to dream about them. Then he asked his friends what they were for. Nobody knew. At last he could stand it no longer. He walked into a restaurant at 47th street and Lake avenue.

"I know I'm ignorant, and I suppose it's business-but what are thos paper flaps on the screen door for?" he asked of a pretty waiter girl.

"Flies," said the girl, with an expression of wonder on her face. "How-why-what?" gasped the inquisi-"Why," said the girl wearily, "they flap in the draught and scare the flies away from the door, so that when any one opens it they ain't there to fly in. See?"

FISHERMEN ARE UNTRUTHFUL. Actuated by a Moral Perversity Inseparable From the Sport. From the Century. Never believe a fisherman who tells you that he does not care about the fish he catches. He may say that he angles only for the pleasure of being out of doors and that he is just as well contented when he takes nothing as when he makes a good catch. He may think so, but it is not true. He is not telling a deliberate falsehood. He is only assuming an unconscious pose and indulging in a delicate bit of self-flattery.

Even if it were true it would not be at all to his credit.

Watch him on that lucky day when he omes home with a full basket of trout on comes home with a full basket of trout on his shoulder or a quartet of silver salmon covered with green branches in the bottom of the canoe. His face is broader than it was when he went out, and there is a sparkle of triumph in his eyes. "It is naught, it is naught," he says, in modest depreciation of his triumphs. But you shall see that he lingers fondly about the place where the fish are displayed upon the grass and does not fail to look carefully at the scales does not fall to look carefully at the scales when they are weighed and has an attentive ear for the comments of admiring spectators. You shall find, moreover, that he is not unwilling to narrate the story of the capture—how the fish rose short, four different times, to four different flies, and finally took a small black dose and played all over the pool, and ran down a terribly stiff rapid to the next pool below, and sulked for twenty minutes and had to be stirred up with stones, and made such a stirred up with stones, and made such a long fight that when he came in at last the hold of the hook was almost worn through and it fell out of his mouth as he touched the shore. Listen to this tale as it is told, with endless variations, by every man who has brought home a fish and you will perceive that the fisherman does care for his luck, after all.

Dog That Steals News.

From the Philadelphia Times. Philadelphia policemen are hunting for a thief that steals news, and according to present indications it will take the whole available force to catch him. The description of the culprit entered on the police blotter reads, "Short, has four legs, two drooping ears and a long tail." There is no classification as to color. The offender belongs to that division of the canine species known as mongrel.

Residents of the southeastern portion of Philadelphia have been annoyed by having their morning newspapers stolen from their doorsteps. Complaints became so frequent that a special detective was detailed to watch for and catch the thief. Wide-awake and alert as this detective was, it was a long time before he learned how the newspapers were really stolen.

papers were really stolen.

The detective was watching one morning at the parochial residence of the Church of the Sacred Heart, 3d and Reed streets, from the Sacred Heart, 3d and Reed streets, from the doorstep of which place the morning paper had regularly disappeared, when he saw a dog dash for the paper and run swiftly away with it. So astonished was he that he forgot to give chase, and the animal succeeded in getting away with his booty. his booty. To the thefts of the dog the police now ascribe all the complaints of newspapers missing from doorsteps. Before the dog dashes for his game he makes a careful detour of the district and if a bluecoat happens to be near he will lower his tail and trot lazily about with an innocent, wistful look until the coast is clear, but after he bags his newspaper he is so alert that no policeman has been able to catch How the dog disposes of his spoils the how the dog disposes of his sports the police can only guess. They do not think the papers he steals are resold by anybody, but so many have been missed that they intend to investigate it thoroughly.

Mr. Stutler Reiterates His Charges and Messrs. Daggett & Dugan Their

Denials - Hearing Tomorrow.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., August 1.4A special to Messrs. Daggett & Dugan, who hold the the Globe-Democrat from Ortiz, Mexico, contract for sweeping certain streets and avenues of the District by the hand system, and who were recently accused by Mr. path in earnest was dispelled today when Warner Stutler, superintendent of the Disnews reached here that several Americans trict street cleaning department, of failing and Mexicans had been killed in pueblos, to observe and carry out the requirements or towns, in the Yaqui river valley, east of the contract, were given a hearing today by the Commissioners. The hearing was not concluded, an adjournment being taken of the slaughter declares that he saw a until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, in order desperate fight at a point forty miles to enable the contractors to prepare to meet certain specifications of the charges of which they claimed to be unaware. The contractors were represented at to day's hearing by Attorneys Wilson and killed. Remley was one of the best-known Hoehling, and, at their suggestion, Mr. Daggett made a statement designed to cover the charges filed by Mr. Stutler, explaining that the whole trouble seemed to be due to what he termed is a forced construction of the specifications of the contract. He claimed that he and his partner every day go over the whole area, about 1,20,000 square yards, which they are required to daily clean, and thoroughly clean it, although he admitted that they do not itary zone, which includes Sonora, Sinaloa the slain.

No information is obtainable as yet of though, he admitted, that they do not sprinkle the whole area, and only sweep the number of fighting Indians under arms, but if the outbreak is of the proportions of the war ended in 1897, the number may and clean those portions of the area which, in their opinion, stands in need of cleaning. Mr. Daggett felt that Mr. Stutler has no thousand. This outdreak is a surplise to the state and army officials. It is impossible to secure accurate fig-ures as to the total number killed to date, but the estimate at fifty on each side is not considered excessive. right to compel him to clean streets which are already, in the opinion of the contrac-tors, clean; "for," as Mr. Daggett put it, "you can't clean something that is already clean."

Superintendent Stutler's Position. Weekly Summary Furnished by the Agricultural Department.

In reply to this Mr. Stutler explained that he could not conscientiously recommend payment to the contractors for areas over which they never worked. Mr. Stut-Following is the weather bureau's weekly ler also stated that, in his opinion, the contractors are required to go over the area and thoroughly clean it by noon each Drought has been relieved in the south day, and where there is a failure to do Atlantic and east gulf states, and beneficial that one-half is deducted from the amount rains have fallen in Ohio and Indiana, but allowed for cleaning that area, and one-fourth where the area is cleaned by mererain is now needed in portions of New York and Pennsylvania, the central portions of Illinois and Missouri, and in Louisiana, Ar-

In his statement Mr. Daggett explained how the firm had been delayed in securing bag carriers, in which the dirt is taken kansas, the Dakotas, western Nebraska and central Colorado. Local storms, acup and placed in bags, and he submitted a number of letters and telegrams which passed between the firm and the manufaccompanied by excessively heavy rains, have proved damaging in Alabama, western passed between the firm and the manufacturers of the machines in support of the contention of the firm that it had made every effort to secure them in time. When the work was first commenced, said Mr. Daggett, 140 men were placed on it, and that number has been increased from day to day until 155 men are now at work. The firm, he stated, does not question the right of the Commissioners to approve deductions for failure to provide a sufficient number of bag carriers or for failure to remove the dirt promptly and thoroughly. Mr. Daggett also admitted that the firm is not fully equipped with bag carriers. Florida and southern New Jersey. Notwithstanding these conditions, the week may be said to have been, upon the whole, generally favorable, the most unpromising reports being received from the Dakotas, where high temperatures and lack of moiswhere high temperatures and lack of mois-ture are being seriously felt.

While corn would be benefited by rains in central Illinois and portions of Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota, the crop has made satisfactory progress in the principal corn states, a marked improvement being reported from the states of the Ohio valley. Iowa also reports a decided improvement, and the outlook in Kansas is considered the best for a number of years. Early corn is now matured as for is not fully equipped with bag carriers. Reports of Inspectors Read.

In response to this statement of Mr. Daggett, Mr. Stutler read reports made to him by hir inspectors, in which it appeared that one of the men employed by the firm had been required to clean 18,000 square yards, and the average, he stated, is yet about from 10,000 to 14,000 yards. Mr. Daggett having claimed that the delay in obtaining the bag carriers was due in a meastaining the bag carriers was due in a measure to the failure of the manufacturers of a certain make of machine to fill an order given for fifty of the machines of a type recommended by Mr. Stutler, the latter said he had merely stated to the firm that such a machine would be acceptable, but added that others just as good, if not better could be secured. ter, could be secured

Claims and Denials.

It was claimed by Mr. Daggett that Mr. Stutler has required the contractors to take off men from work on Pennsylvania avenue, and, because have proved injurious. Good growth is, however, generally reported, especially in the central and eastern sections, and as a the side streets were not cleaned by noon, has deducted one-fourth of the amount due on such side streets. This Mr. Stutler derule the crop is fruiting well. Picking is well advanced in portions of southern Texas, in which state the general condition of nied, explaining that he has merely permit-ted the men to be taken from such side streets and put at work on Pennsylvania avenue. What the contractors should have done, and what he has insisted they shall do, is to place enough men on all streets and avenues to not only perform the work properly, but in the time required by the terms of the contract.

York, and has been injured on low lands in Tennessee by heavy rains; elsewhere the weather conditions have been favorable for the growth of tobacco, a marked improvement being reported from the states of the Ohio valley. Cutting and curing continue in the Carolinas, and will soon begin in Maryland and Virginia.

Considerable progress with plowing for fall seeding has been made in the central valleys and middle Atlantic states. Referring to the charge made by Mr. Referring to the charge made by Mr. Stutler that the firm had not paid their men promptly, Mr. Daggett stated that the men were told they would be paid twice a month, and until they struck, on the 21st of last month, he was not aware that the men were dissatisfied. Heretofore, he said, the men have been paid weekly, and the contractors twice a month, and he denied the charge that the men were forced by The Atkinsonian Was Shown How the the firm to deal at a store run by the firm.

Store Run at a Loss. That store, he explained, was started to keep the men scher and to prevent them from cashing orders on stores in the vicinity and then purchasing liquor. The store run by the firm, he declared, has been conducted at a loss, and he characterized as a lie the statement that men have been discharged because they refused to deal at the store. The men, he said, are paid in cash, but are given credit at the store. Another Hearing Tomorrow.

Commissioner Ross having invited the attention of the contractors to the fact that they have been charged by Mr. Stutler with failing to properly sprinkle the likes anything. He didn't like our killing off the Filipinos fighting vallantly for their liberty. He didn't like our failure thus far to kill off enough of them to stop the insurstreets, and to the fact that the police department has been directed to report as to the character of the work done by the contractors, as well as to the time in contractors, as well as to the time in which the streets are gone over, copies of hese reports were handed to the firm's at torneys, and the hearing was adjourned un-til tomorrow, in order to enable them to exposed to the rains and ravages of the tropics. District Employes.

As data for the "Blue Book" issued by the Department of the Interior the District Commissioners have forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior a table containing the name of every District employe, the state, territory or country in which the employe was born or from which he er she was appointed, and the salary enjoyed. The largest number of employes were either born or appointed from the the thirty or forty men who by that time had gathered around.

"That's the stuff!" cried another.

The anti-imperialist endeavored to resume his argument, but the crowd wouldn't have it. Their patriotism was aroused, and they wanted to hear from the man who was defending the administration and the army. And they did. He handled the Filipino sympathizers without gloves, and every sally that he made was vigorously applauded. Before long the whole boat had become interested in the discussion, and the cabin was crowded to the doors. Yet, among them all, there was not one who offered the slightest consolation to the Atkinsonian. District, Virginia coming next, closely followed by Maryland. Almost every country n the world is represented by the em ployes, Ireland leading the list, with Germany second. China and even Spain appears to be represented. The only territory not being represented is Arizona.

I heartily coincide with the sentiments of

Bank of Chicago against the Consumers' stretches up to the ramparts of Constanti-nople. Italy may, therefore, look at home before she spends her hardly raised reve-nues in "plowing the sands" of Africa or aiding in the partition of China. Certainly the colonizing genius of the ancient Ro-mans has not descended upon the modern Italians; and even the ancient Romans, like the modern Italians, allowed their own Brewing Company to recover $23,850 alleged to be due on promissory notes a hearing was had this afternoon on a motion to have the attachment released on the furnishing of surety. Justice Cole de39 White P. K. Skirts, the material worth the price we ask for the finished skirt, for these $2.00 Skirts are now marked $1.19 for choice. 27 Parasois, best quality taffeta, pure white with gauze ribbon border, in all the prettlest shades.
